In the event a Unit is owned by more than one person, all of the Co-Owners thereof shall be collectively entitled to the vote assigned to such Unit and such Co-Owners shall, in writing to the Board Secretary, designate one such Co-Owner who shall be entitled to cast the vote or votes on behalf of the Co-Owners of such Unit of which each is a part owner until such authorization shall have been changed in writing. This vote can be cast in person or by mail in ballot. At that time, the Board can use those funds for other budgeted expenses or improvements. The funds in the Replacement Reserve Fund shall be banked and/or invested separately from all other funds of The Oaks. 6. These emergency Bylaws shall supersede any inconsistent or contrary provisions of the Bylaws during the period of the emergency.
7. For purposes of this Section only, an “emergency” exists only during a period of time that the Condominium, or the immediate geographic area in which the Condominium is located, is subject to:
 - a. a state of emergency declared by local civil or law enforcement authorities;

The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which each Director or officer may be entitled.

J. Records. All official records of the Condominium shall be kept at the principal office of the Condominium.

ARTICLE V

OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

A. Common Expenses. Common Expenses, as provided in the current annual Operating Budget, shall include, but not be limited to, the cost of operation, maintenance, repair, replacement and insurance of the Common Elements, electricity, water, sewer, utility service to the Common Elements, and the expenses of operating the Condominium, administration and management, including but not limited to, management fees, casualty and liability insurance premiums, service contracts, and employee salaries. The Common Expenses shall also include water and sewer service to the Units, and such other items as may be provided for in the current annual Operating Budget or as otherwise approved by the Council.

B. Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges. At each Annual Meeting, the Council shall fix and determine the amount deemed necessary to provide the costs of the Common Expenses in the next budget year, and shall assess said amount against all Units in the Condominium in accordance with their individual percentage interest as set forth in paragraph FOURTH of the Master Deed. To assist the Council in determining such amount, the notice of the annual meeting served on Co-Owners shall include a proposed annual Operating Budget prepared by the Board.

C. Notification of Common Charges. The Board shall advise all Co-Owners promptly, in writing, of the amount of common charges payable by each of them, respectively, and shall furnish copies of each budget or reason for expenditure (if not budgeted) on which such charges are based to all Co-Owners.

D. Lien for Common Expenses.

1. Each Co-Owner is liable for all assessments and charges levied and assessed against such Unit for payment of such assessments and charges, and such amounts shall constitute a lien (hereinafter referred to as "Lien") against said Unit from the day of assessment until the date of full payment.

2. The Lien hereinabove set forth shall be inferior only to general and special assessments for real estate taxes and mortgages or other encumbrances recorded prior to the date of assessment of said Lien, or recorded after receipt of a written statement from the Board that the payments on said Lien were current as of the recordation date of such mortgage or other encumbrance.

3. In the event of default in payment, the Board also is empowered to direct the "Lessee" of a Unit where payment is in arrears that the "Lessee" is to pay directly to the Board the full amount of the rent and delinquent charges for any amount the Co-Owner is in arrears to the Condominium.

E. Payment of Lien after Transfer. Upon the voluntary sale or conveyance of a Unit, there shall be paid, or provided from the sales proceeds, or by the selling Co-Owner, an amount sufficient to satisfy any unpaid portion of assessments and charges due and payable as of the date of the conveyance. Any purchaser or lender in connection with such sale or conveyance shall be entitled to a statement furnished by the Condominium setting forth in detail the amount of any unpaid assessments and charges owed by the Co-Owner. Whenever title to a Unit is transferred for any reason, the new Co-Owner is jointly and severally liable with the previous Co-Owner for all assessments and charges, including, but not limited to, interest, late fees, attorneys' fees, costs, and other charges which came due prior to the transfer and remain unpaid, without prejudice to any right the new Co-Owner may have to recover from the previous Co-Owner any amounts paid by the new Co-Owner.

F. Late Payment or Default in Payment of Lien.

1. In the event of default in the payment of any one or more installments of the assessments and charges established for the payment of Common Expenses, the Board may declare any unpaid balance of said Lien immediately due and payable together with any penalties and interest from the due date.

2. The Board shall take all appropriate actions to collect any assessments and charges which shall remain unpaid for a period of more than thirty (30) days from the due date thereof. The Board may institute a suit in the name of the Condominium to recover a money judgment for the same, together with interest thereon at the highest rate of interest allowed by law and reasonable expenses of collection, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, without foreclosing or waiving the Lien hereinabove provided.

3. Upon any delay in excess of ten (10) days in payment of charges levied on a Co-Owner's Unit for payment of Common Expenses or other default, such amount shall be subject to a service charge fixed by the Board, and it shall have the same status as any other charge for Common Expense.

G. Lien Enforcement. The Lien for any and all unpaid assessments and charges may be enforced and foreclosed in such manner as may from time to time be provided by the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the foreclosure of mortgages. In any action brought by the Board, in the name of the Condominium, to foreclose a Lien on a Unit because of unpaid charges, the Co-Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of such Unit, and the Board, as plaintiff in such foreclosure action, shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

H. Restrictions on Use of Units and Common Elements. To assist the Condominium in providing congenial occupancy and the protection of the value of other Units, it is necessary that the Board have the right and authority to exercise reasonable controls over the use of the Units. Therefore, all Units and Common Elements are subject to the following:

1. No Co-Owner, Co-Owner's agent, or other residents or occupants of the Condominium shall place any advertisements, signs, or posters of any kind in or about the Condominium, except this restriction shall not apply to advertisements, signs, or posters placed off-site of the Condominium by the Co-Owner, or Co-Owner's agents in the selling of Units.

2. Units shall be used only for private residential purposes.
3. The number of unrelated persons living in a Unit is limited to two (2) per Eaton Unit and three (3) per Transylvania, Carlton or Mansfield Units.
4. No clothing, laundry, rugs or wash shall be hung from or spread upon or from any patio, window, or exterior portion of a Unit or in or upon any Common Element.
5. The keeping of pets is a privilege, not a right. No animal, other than common household pets, shall be kept or maintained in any Unit. "Common household pets" refers specifically to dogs (excluding pit bulldogs), cats, birds, and fish. Common household pets shall not be kept, bred, or maintained for commercial purposes in any Unit. In the interest of the health and welfare of residents of the Condominium, the Board may limit the number of pets permitted in any Unit. No pets, leashed or unleashed, shall be permitted in the pool area.
6. Any Co-Owner, tenant, resident, or occupant who keeps or maintains a pet shall, in exchange for and in consideration of the privilege to keep or maintain the pet, hereby indemnifies and holds harmless the Condominium and each Co-Owner from any loss, claim, or liability of any kind or character of whatever nature arising from or related to the keeping or maintaining of such pet.
7. Co-Owners, residents and guests shall exercise extreme care to avoid unnecessary noise including, but not limited to, musical instruments, radios, televisions, and amplifiers that may disturb other Co-Owners.
8. No Co-Owner or resident shall install, including but not limited to, electrical or telephone equipment, television antennae, HVAC units, or satellite dishes which protrude through the walls of the building or are otherwise visible on the exterior of the building except as authorized by the Board.
9. Installation and placement of satellite dishes shall not take place without the prior written approval of the Board or its designee.

10. No truck, trailer, boat, camper, bus, mobile home, RV, ATV, or similar vehicle or any other equipment designated by the Board shall be parked or permitted to remain upon any part of the Common Elements. Small pickup trucks and small vans regularly used for residential transport are exempted from the above restriction.

11. All vehicles must have current license/registration, be insured and in good working order or will be subject to towing.

12. Any above described vehicle or equipment that is parked in violation of the above restrictions may be towed or booted whether it is on property owned by the Condominium or on the Common Elements appurtenant to a Unit. No prior notice is required. All costs and expenses shall be borne by the owner of the vehicle. Such costs and expenses shall not be considered a fine or suspension of the right to use the common facilities and do not preclude the Condominium or Council from pursuing those remedies instead of or in addition to towing or booting a vehicle. The Condominium is not liable for any damage to a vehicle that is towed or booted by a licensed and insured contractor. Unit Co-Owners and Lessees are responsible to see that all occupants of their Units, as well as guests, visitors, and invitees, comply with the parking restrictions. Unit Co-Owners shall indemnify, defend, and hold the Condominium and Council harmless from all claims against the Condominium and Council on account of towing or booting a vehicle, including claims against the Condominium and Council asserted by any occupant of the Unit as well as any guests, visitors, and invitees to a Unit, excepting only if it has been judicially determined that the Condominium or Council is guilty of gross negligence or a higher degree of culpability.

13. No elements of the Condominium may be used for any unlawful, immoral, or improper purpose.

14. No nuisances shall be allowed on the Condominium property, nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to its residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Condominium by its residents.

15. Common Elements:

a. The common porches shared by more than one Unit are for entrance to and egress from the Units. For safety purposes, they shall remain unobstructed at all times except for such items as may be authorized by the Board from time to time in the rules and regulations of the Condominium.

b. In the use of the Common Elements of the Condominium, Co-Owners, tenants, occupants and guests shall obey and abide by all laws, ordinances, zoning, and other governmental regulations affecting the same and all applicable rules and regulations adopted from time to time by the Board

c. A Co-Owner shall grant a right of access to his/her Unit to any person authorized by the Board for the purpose of making inspections or for the purpose of correcting any condition originating in such Unit and threatening another Unit or Common Element or for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services of other Common Elements in such Unit or elsewhere in the buildings, or to correct any condition which violates the provisions of any deed of trust or mortgage covering another Unit. Requests for entry shall be made in advance and for a time reasonably convenient to the Co-Owner. In case of emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate whether the Co-Owner is present at the time or not.

I. Maintenance and Repair:

1. Each Co-Owner shall be responsible for the care, upkeep, protection and maintenance of his/her Unit except to the extent that the obligation therefore is imposed on the Board by Article III, Section B, 1. The Co-Owner's responsibility shall include, but not be limited to, the following: the interior walls, floors and ceilings, kitchen and bathroom fixtures, appliances and equipment, refrigerator and range, fireplaces, and those parts of the plumbing, lighting, heating and air-conditioning systems which are either wholly contained within such Unit or which serve only that Unit and no other. Every Co-Owner must perform promptly all maintenance and repair work within his/her Unit which, if omitted, would affect the Condominium in its entirety or in a part belonging to another Co-Owner or other Co-Owners. Every Co-Owner shall be expressly responsible for any damages and liabilities suffered by other Co-Owners or by the Condominium resulting from or caused by said Co-Owner's failure to maintain or repair as herein provided. Each Co-Owner shall perform such maintenance and repair so as not to disturb or interfere with the other Co-Owners.

2. The Co-Owner of any Unit shall, at his/her own expense, clean and maintain the interior and exterior surfaces of all windows of such Unit and shall, at his/her own expense, clean and maintain the glass surfaces of all glass entry doors of the Unit including the interior and exterior surfaces of any door leading to any balcony, deck, terrace, or patio pertinent to such Unit.

3. Each Co-Owner shall promptly report to the manager any defect or need for repairs which are the Condominium's responsibility.

4. A Co-Owner shall promptly reimburse the Condominium for any expenditures incurred in repairing or replacing any Common Elements damaged through his/her own or his/her guest's fault or negligence.

5. Each Co-Owner shall be responsible for keeping all portions of the Limited Common Elements, restricted for the use of that particular Unit (including, without limitation, any balcony, covered parking space, terrace, or patio pertinent to such Unit) free and clear of litter, in good order and appearance.

J. Alterations, Additions, and Improvements.

1. Whenever, in the judgment of the Board, the Common Elements shall require alterations, additions, or improvements costing in excess of two and one-half (2 ½%) percent of the then-current Operating Budget, the making of such alterations, additions, or improvements must be approved by a majority of Co-Owners. The Board shall then proceed with such alterations, additions, or improvements the cost of which shall constitute either a special assessment or become a part of the Common Expenses. Any alterations, additions, or improvements costing two and one-half (2 ½%) percent or less of the then-current Operating Budget may be made by the Board without approval of the Co-Owners and the cost thereof shall constitute a part of the Common Expenses.

2. No Co-Owner shall make any alterations, additions, or improvements to any portion of the Common Elements, nor remove any part or portion thereof, nor do anything that might jeopardize the safety or soundness of the Common Elements.

3. Any and all plans for renovations, installations, modifications, alterations, or additions to a Unit and appurtenant Limited Common Elements must be pre-approved in writing by the Board. The Board may refuse to approve a proposed plan of renovation, installation, modification, alteration or addition for any reasonable cause, including, but not limited to, safety concerns, without the necessity of obtaining professional opinions to support such concerns. No Unit Co-Owner may alter the landscaping in any way without prior Board approval. If a Unit Co-Owner makes any approved renovations, installations, modifications, alterations, or additions to his/her Unit or the Limited Common Elements, the Unit Co-Owner and his/her successors in title shall be financially responsible for the maintenance, repair, and upkeep of the renovations, installations, modifications, alterations, or additions, as well as the cost of repairing any damage to the Common Elements or other Units resulting from the same; and the Unit Co-Owner is also responsible to provide casualty insurance on such renovations, installations, modifications, alterations, or additions, even if the Condominium would otherwise be required to provide casualty insurance by statute or under the governing documents. The Unit Co-Owner and his/her successor in title shall also be responsible for the costs of removing, replacing, or reinstalling such renovations, installations, modifications, alterations, or additions if their removal by the Condominium or Council becomes necessary in order to maintain, repair, replace or protect other parts of the Condominium property.

4. The Board shall answer any written request by a Co-Owner for approval of a proposed renovation, installation, modification, alteration, or addition to such Co-Owner's Unit within thirty (30) days after receiving such a request. Failure to do so within such thirty (30) day period shall constitute consent by the Board to the proposed renovation, installation, modification, alteration, or addition.

K. Use of Licensed and Insured Contractors. Whenever a Unit Co-Owner contracts for maintenance, repair, replacement, alteration, addition, or improvement of any portion of the Unit or Limited Common Elements, whether with or without Board approval, such Co-Owner shall be deemed to have warranted to the Condominium and its members that his/her contractor(s) are properly licensed and fully insured and that the Co-Owner will be financially responsible for any resulting damage to persons or property. The Unit Co-Owner also agrees to indemnify the Condominium and its members from any Liens which may attach to the Common Elements and which are attributable to work performed by or for the benefit of the Unit Co-Owner. The Board may establish rules regarding contractor access to the Condominium property, including rules regarding work hours, the placement, size, and duration of any dumpster in connection therewith, and may require a Unit Co-Owner to post damage/cleaning deposit in advance of commencing any work.

L. Enforcement of Maintenance. If after reasonable notice, the Unit Co-Owner fails to maintain the Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements as required, the Condominium shall have the right to institute legal proceedings to enforce compliance, or may take any and all lawful actions to remedy such violation, including, but not limited to, entering the Unit, with or without notice to or consent of the tenant or Co-Owner, to repair, replace, and maintain any item which in the reasonable judgment of the Board may constitute a health or safety hazard to other property or residents or which has a material adverse effect on the appearance of the Condominium. Any expenses incurred by the Condominium/Council in performing work within the Unit as authorized, shall be charged to the Unit Co-

Owner, together with reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses or collection, if any, which expenses shall be secured by a Lien against the Unit and may be foreclosed in the same manner as Common Expenses.

ARTICLE VI

INSURANCE, DESTRUCTION, RESTORATION AND DISTRIBUTION

A. Authority.

1. The Board shall obtain and maintain, to the extent reasonably available, real property, personal property, vehicle, and liability insurance under such terms and for such amounts as shall be deemed necessary by the Board, but in no event less than the amount required by Section B of this Article. The premiums for insurance purchased by the Board shall be assessed as items of Common Expense. Such insurance coverage shall provide for the issuance of Certificates of Insurance and Endorsements to all mortgagees of Units and to all Co-Owners of said Units.

2. Provisions for such insurance shall be without prejudice to the right of each Co-Owner to insure his/her Unit or other legal interests as appropriate.

B. Coverage.

1. The Condominium shall be insured, to the extent reasonably available, against casualty in a minimum amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value (i.e., 100% of replacement cost) thereof as determined annually by the Board with assistance of the insurance company affording such coverage. The policy shall cover all the improvements on the Property, with the exception of wall coverings, and shall contain "agreed amount", "condominium replacement cost", and "replacement cost endorsements." Such coverage shall be special-form coverage and shall include Back-Up-of-Sewer-And-Drains coverage and shall be as comprehensive as possible with replacement construction meeting current building codes.

2. Such coverage shall insure the buildings (including all of the Units and the bathroom, kitchen, and laundry fixtures and equipment, together with all air-conditioning, heating and other equipment, but not including furniture, furnishings, appliances, and other personal property supplied by Co-Owners) and other Condominium property. The Condominium shall be under a comprehensive general liability form for bodily injury, property damage, personal injury, and advertising injury in such amounts and in such forms as shall be required by the Board which, however, in no event shall be less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) aggregate. An umbrella liability policy of not less than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) limit in excess of the above described basic coverage shall be obtained.

3. Workers Compensation insurance shall be obtained where necessary to meet the requirements of the law.

C. Limitations. Any insurance obtained pursuant to the requirements of this Article shall be subject to the following provisions:

1. All policies shall be written with a company or companies licensed to do business in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and holding an "A" rating.

2. In no event shall the insurance coverage obtained and maintained pursuant to the requirements of this Article be brought into contribution with insurance purchased individually by any of the Co-Owners or their mortgagees, as herein permitted, and any "no other insurance" or similar clause in any policy obtained by the Council pursuant to the requirements of this Article shall exclude such policies from consideration.

3. All policies shall, to the extent reasonably available, provide that such policies may not be cancelled without at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to any and all insureds named thereon, including any and all mortgagees.

4. All policies of casualty insurance shall provide, that, notwithstanding any provisions thereof which give the carrier the right to elect to restore or repair damage or to reconstruct in lieu of making a cash settlement, such option shall not be exercisable without the previous written approval of the Board or when in conflict with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of the Horizontal Property Law of Kentucky or the Kentucky Condominium Act.

5. All policies shall contain a waiver of subrogation by the insurer as to any and all claims against the Council, the Board, and their respective agents, employees, or invitees.

D. Individual Policies.

1. Each Co-Owner shall obtain, in addition to the insurance hereinabove provided to be obtained by the Board, a "Condominium Homeowner's Policy", or its equivalent, to insure against loss or damage to personal property used or incidental to the occupancy of the Unit, additional living expense, vandalism, or malicious mischief, theft, and the like. Such policy shall include a "Condominium Unit-Owner's Endorsement" covering losses to improvements and betterments to the Unit made or acquired at the expense of the Co-Owner.

2. All Co-Owners shall obtain liability insurance coverage in an amount to be established by the Board, but, in any event, at least $300,000 in coverage. Such coverage shall name "The Oaks Condominiums of Lexington, Inc." as an "additional insured".

3. No Co-Owner shall maintain insurance coverage which will tend to decrease the amount which the Board may realize under any insurance policy which it may have in force at any particular time.

4. The Board may require each Co-Owner to file with the Council a copy of each individual policy of insurance purchased by the Co-Owner within thirty (30) days of its purchase.

E. Covenants for the Benefit of Mortgagees. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Board shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the Co-Owners entitled thereto, after first paying or making provision for the payment of the expenses of the Board in the following manner:

1. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided herein that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be repaired or reconstructed, then, and in that event, such portions of the project shall be deemed to be owned in common by the Co-Owners thereof and shall be subject to action for partition upon the suit of such Co-Owners or mortgagees.

2. In making distributions to Co-Owners and their mortgagees, the Board may rely upon a certification of the Council as to the names of the Co-Owners and their respective shares of the distribution. The Board shall not incur any liability to any Co-Owner, mortgagee, or any other person for any disbursements made by it pursuant to and in accordance with any such certificate or written authorization.

F. Reconstruction. If any part of the Condominium shall be damaged by casualty, the determination of whether or not to reconstruct or repair the same shall be made as follows:

1. Proceeds are to be paid first to repair or restore damage or construction as elsewhere provided herein. After defraying the cost of the repair or restoration, all remaining proceeds shall be payable jointly to the Co-Owners and mortgagees, if any, entitled thereto. This covenant is for the benefit of any mortgagee and may be enforced by it.

2. Where there is partial destruction, which shall be deemed to mean destruction which does not render two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Units of the entire Condominium untenable, there shall be compulsory reconstruction or repair.

3. Where there is total destruction, which shall be deemed to mean destruction which does render two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Units of the entire Condominium untenable, reconstruction or repair shall not be compulsory unless all of the Co-Owners unanimously vote in favor of such reconstruction or repair. Such a vote shall be held at a meeting which shall be called within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the casualty, or, if by such date, the insurance loss has not been fully adjusted, then within thirty (30) days thereafter.

4. Any such reconstruction or repair shall be in accordance with current building codes (ordinance and law coverage) and with the original construction and design under which the Condominium was originally constructed with the proceeds of insurance available for that purpose, if any.

5. Encroachments upon or in favor of Units which may be created as a result of such reconstruction or repair shall not constitute a claim or basis for action by the Co-Owner upon whose property such encroachment exists, provided that such reconstruction was substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications under which the Condominium was originally constructed. Such encroachments shall be allowed to continue in existence for so long as the buildings stand.

G. Assessments If Insurance is Inadequate. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Council has the responsibility of maintenance and repair, the Board shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost, in keeping with current building codes, to place the damaged property in as good a condition as it was before the casualty. Such estimated costs may include professional fees and premiums for such bonds as the Board desires. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray such estimated costs, a special assessment shall be made against all Co-Owners in proportion to their aforementioned individual percentage interests in sufficient amount to provide funds to pay the balance of the estimated costs. Without regard to type or location of the facility, if at any time during reconstruction or repair, or upon completion of reconstruction or repair, the funds for the payments of the costs thereof are insufficient, assessments shall be made against all the Co-Owners in proportion to their individual percentage interests in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such additional costs.

H. Disbursements. Any and all disbursements of funds, whether such funds consist of insurance proceeds, special assessments, sales proceeds, or any combination thereof, shall be made pursuant to and in accordance with a certificate of the Council or the Board.

ARTICLE VII

LEASING OF UNITS

Co-Owners may lease their Units solely for residential purposes and only in their entirety. Such leases must be in writing and must be in accordance with the guidelines and restrictions of this Article.

A. Lessees. Every lessee must be a natural person except as provided for in Section J of this Article.

B. Term of Lease. No lease may be for a period of less than six (6) months, and no option for the lessee to extend or renew the lease for any additional period shall be permitted without Board approval. The Board, may, at its discretion, approve the same lease from year to year. No subleasing or assignment of lease rights by the lessee is allowed without Board approval.

C. Procedures.

1. Applications. Applications for authority to lease shall be made to the Board on such forms and include such terms as the Board may provide from time to time.

2. Notice by the Unit Co-Owner. A Co-Owner intending to lease his/ her Unit shall give to the Board or its designee written notice of such intention at least five (5) business days prior to the first day of occupancy under the lease together with the name and address of the proposed lessee, a full executed copy of the proposed lease, and such other information as the Board may reasonably require. The Board may require a personal interview with any lessee and his or her spouse, if any, as a precondition to approval.

3. Failure to Give Notice to Obtain Approval. If proper notice is not given, the Board, at its election, may approve or disapprove the lease. Any lease entered into without approval may, at the option of the Board, be treated as a nullity, and the Board shall have the power to evict the lessee with five (5) days notice, without securing consent to such eviction from the Co-Owner. In the event of eviction proceedings by the Board, the Co-Owner shall be responsible for such court costs, attorney's fees, and other expenses incurred in the action.

4. Board Action. After the required notice and all information or interviews requested have been provided, the Board or its designee shall approve or disapprove the proposed lease within the five (5) business-day period prior to occupancy. If the Board neither approves nor disapproves within such time frame, its failure to act shall be deemed the equivalent of approval, and on demand, the Board shall issue a written letter of approval to the lessee.

5. Committee Approval. To facilitate approval of leases proposed during times when many of the Board members are not available, the Board may, by resolution, delegate its approval powers to an ad hoc committee, which shall consist of at least three (3) members.

6. Disapproval. A proposed lease shall be disapproved only if a majority of the whole Board so votes, and in such case, the lease shall not be made. Appropriate grounds for disapproval shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) The Co-Owner is delinquent in the payments of assessments at the time the application is considered.

(b) The Co-Owner has a history of leasing his/her Unit to troublesome lessees and/or refusing to control or accept responsibility for the occupancy of such Unit.

(c) The real estate company or rental agent handling the leasing transaction on behalf of the Co-Owner has a history of screening lessee applicants inadequately or recommending undesirable lessees.

(d) The prospective lessee has been convicted of a felony involving violence to persons or property, a felony involving the sale or possession of a controlled substance, a felony demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude, or is a convicted sex offender.

(e) The Co-Owner fails to give proper notice to the Board of his/her intention to lease his/her Unit.

7. Assessments. The legal responsibility for paying Condominium assessments may not be delegated to the lessee.

D. Occupancy During Lease Term. No one but the lessee, his or her guests, his or her family members within the first degree of relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, and their spouses and guests may occupy the Unit. The total number of overnight occupants of a leased Unit is limited to two (2) persons per bedroom.

E. Use of Common Areas. To prevent overtaxing the Condominium facilities, a Co-Owner whose Unit is leased may not use the recreation or parking facilities of the Common Elements of the Condominium during the lease term.

F. Insurance. All leases shall contain a provision requiring the lessee to obtain and maintain a "renter's insurance policy" or a liability insurance policy, and to furnish a copy of such to the Board or its designee.

G. Regulation By Condominium. All of the provisions of the Condominium documents and the rules and regulations of the Condominium shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying a Unit as a lessee or guest to the same extent as against the Co-Owner. A covenant on the part of each occupant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Condominium and the provisions of the Condominium documents, designating the Condominium as the Co-Owner's agent with the authority to terminate any lease agreement and evict the tenants in the event of breach of such covenant, shall be deemed to be included in every lease agreement, whether oral or written, and whether or not expressed in such agreement.

H. Surcharge. Any Co-Owner of a "Non-Co-Owner-Occupied Unit", whether such Unit is leased or simply occupied by someone other than the Co-Owner, must pay an annual surcharge to the Condominium. Said surcharge shall be assessed for each year or partial year of the duration of said occupancy, shall be determined by the Council, and shall be included in the annual Operating Budget of the Condominium. The only exception to this surcharge will be occupancy of the Unit solely by the children the Co-Owner.

The "Non-Co-Owner-Occupied Unit "surcharge will be due and payable within thirty (30) days of occupancy of the Unit. Failure to pay the surcharge fee within the allotted time will activate a penalty fee to be added to the surcharge fee, such penalty fee to be determined by the Board. The surcharge fee will be pro-rated if the Unit is first occupied after March 1 of any given year. There will be no refund of the surcharge fee or any portion thereof should the Unit cease to be occupied by the "Non-Co-Owner".

I. Leasing Restrictions. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, from and after December 6, 2011, a Co-Owner shall not lease his/her Unit if the then percentage of leased Units exceeds fourteen and nine-tenths (14.9%) percent of the total number of Units (hereinafter referred to as "Rental Restriction"). However, the above Rental Restriction shall not apply to Co-Owners or their heirs who have title to their Unit prior to December 6, 2011. The Co-Owner is responsible for providing the Condominium with a current address and with notice of any change of address. An affidavit of the officer, employee, or person making such a mailing, electronic transmission, or personal delivery shall be retained in the Condominium records as proof of notice. If ownership of a Unit is transferred after notice has been mailed, electronically transmitted, or personally delivered, no separate notice to the new Co-Owner is required. Attendance at any meeting by a Co-Owner constitutes waiver of notice by such Co-Owner unless the Co-Owner objects to the lack of notice at the beginning of the meeting.

ARTICLE X

ABATING AND ENJOINING VIOLATIONS BY CO-OWNERS

The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board, or the breach of any provision of Bylaws contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Master Deed shall give the Board the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Bylaws:

- a. to enter the Unit in which or as to which such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the Co-Owner at fault, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or
